Jewel of West Africa: Ivory Coast

With its impressive population of 25 million, its modern roads and its infrastructure which is in a good condition according to the continental average, Ivory Coast is ready to offer attractive opportunities for exporters.

According to the 2017 IMF data, Ivory Coast, which is the most stable country in West Africa with a growth rate of 8,95%, is the 6th rapidly growing country in the world.

The country, which has a foreign trade surplus every year for 13 years, has many important mines as well as oil, natural gas and diamonds. In addition, the Ivory Coast, the world's largest cocoa producer, has 30% of the world's total production.

With its powerful economy driven by these important sources of income, the Ivory Coast is committed to gaining the status of developing countries by 2020.

Ivory Coast, one of the member countries of UEMO, the West African Economic and Monetary Union, uses the same currency and the same passport together with Senegal, Benin, Niger, Togo, Mali, Guinea-Bissau and Burkina Faso, by duty-free trading the country is a member of a giant family of 125 million people, covering 2.3% of the world land and 1.6% of the world population.
